

We are a group of graduate students who are conducting a survey for BioFuelNet regarding biomass production and utilization, and its environmental, economic and social impacts on Canadian society. Your contribution will help us to understand and illustrate the current status, and to improve opportunities and solve challenges in biomass production and utilization.

If you are a farmer/producer, please use the link below:

Biomass Survey - Questions for Farmers

If you are working in biomass related industries and businesses, please use the link below:

Biomass Survey - Questions for Industries/Businesses

If you are a researcher, please use the link below:

Biomass Survey - Questions for Researchers

If you are a policy maker and/or legislator, please use the link below:

Biomass Survey - Questions for Policy Makers and Legislators

Your responses will make a difference and we truly value the information you have provided.